President's Message

By: Brandy Meeker

Unless you've just gotten back from a deserted island you probably know by now that President Trump was convicted on all counts against him. Have we just witnessed the beginning death throes of our country? Or is this the new Lexington and Concord? Will the travesty that happened on May 30 become the new shot heard round the world that will echo all the way to November 5th? Either way, we are certainly in uncharted territory now.

In June we are going to take a different approach to politics and discuss "Is American Turning Back to God?" The story of America is a cautionary tale. From our very inception when the Pilgrims landed in The New World they made a covenant with God. They would serve Him and keep his commandments. For a very long time we kept that covenant. It was renewed with the Declaration of Independence when the famous words "endowed by their creator" were put down. It was the first time in history that it was acknowledged that rights don't come from men, but from God. Because we were faithful to Him, we prospered. We prospered like no other nation in the history of the world. But sometime in the middle of the last century we broke that covenant by turning our hearts away from God. Ever since, our once great nation has been on a downward spiral. Can we turn our country around by turning back to God and once again living the covenant we swore to him? Join us as Pastor Tim Thompson talks about what seems to be a national re-awakening.

Stay tuned for more information regarding an exciting evening event we are working on for the summer!

As for the May luncheon...

A job well done I'd like to say
For a fabulous luncheon this month of May.
The ladies were gorgeous the event had flare.
The room was stunning with nothing to spare.
The speaker was captivating; she made us all think.
The musician entertained us while we enjoyed a fun drink!
The baskets were bustling; people supported them well,
And the ladies who sold tickets really could sell!
I couldn't do it without you! We're a really great team!
Like Holly Golightly we all like to dream!

Thank you everyone who helped, attended and supported this fabulous event.
