

Loren Spivack

Economist, Author, Commentator

Loren is a popular speaker at Republican and conservative events all over the United States. Loren, along with Kelly Ann Conway, was the keynote speaker at the Delaware state Republican Convention in April of 2023. He spoke at the Michigan GOP's biannual Mackinac conference in 2023.

Always with a fresh take, Loren examines the issues of our time through the eyes of an economist. And reveals fundamental truths underlying the political challenges we face. Loren also writes unique parodies that teach conservative principles and offer conservative critiques, in a humorous way.

- The New Democrat, a parody of the Obama Administration.
- The Wizard of Iz, a parody of the Clintons and the Democrats in general.
- To Think That I Saw It on CNN Live, A parody of the media in the Trump era.
- Motley Clique, a parody of 'critical race theory' and identity politics.
- Kamalat, a parody of the Biden Administration.

And more...Loren's eighth book, a parody of public education, will be out in early 2025.

He conducts "Economic Literacy" seminars across the United States. So far, Spivack has delivered his famous seminar on "Economic Literacy" to over 200 groups in 20 states.
